

About Us

“Proper Nutrition is a company that has been eager to show me their quality analyses from independent laboratories and supply me with scientific references to back their products. These are important criteria that I look for before I will trust a company with my patients' welfare.”

- Sherry A. Rogers, MD

Headquartered in Reading, Pa., and founded in 1994, Proper Nutrition, Inc. is dedicated to providing the safest, most natural ways to healthy, happy, active lifestyles. We support our commitment to naturally derived solutions to wellness issues with extensive research, expert testing, and the highest quality production standards. As a result, Proper Nutrition, Inc. products are among the most effective, safe, and side-effect-free ways to regaining and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.
